*Student 1 and Student 2 are sitting at a table, discussing the current assignment, with a laptop in front of them. *Lights up

S1 : This makes no sense to me. Explain how to use max flow to find the maximum bipartite matching in a bipartite graph, and prove its correctness using the min-cut max flow theorem?! I don't even know what bipartitis is?!

S2 : Well you know... There is always... looks around, making sure nobody else is present ... that option.

S1 : You don't mean... looks around, making sure nobody else is present ... that option?..

S2 : Yes I mean... both looks around, making sure nobody else is present ... that option... takes the laptop, types furiously

*OverTex: *Opens ChatGPT

S2 : You know what to do... gives the laptop back to Student 1

S1 : Well.. Don't mind if I do types furiously

*OverTex: *Asks ChatGPT the aforementioned question, and copies the result into a document

S1 : And that's that!

TA : WHAT IS GOING ON HERE

S2 : OH NO, THE TA!

S1 : Smacks the laptop

*OverTex: *Black Screen

S1 and S2 Both run off the scene WITHOUT the laptop

TA : Well well... What do we have here?

*OverTex: *Show the assignment in the document

TA : Oh? An assignment... Well it is 2 weeks after the deadline, so I should probably start grading.

*OverTex: *Copies the assignment text

*OverTex: *Opens the browser and see ChatGPT is open

TA : And Chat is already open?... looks around, making sure nobody else is present Well.. Don't mind if I do Copies in their assignment While typing how many points from 0 to 10

*OverTex: *Show it being typed into ChatGPT and enter is pressed.

Professor : WHAT IS GOING ON HERE

TA : Smacks the laptop

*OverTex: *Black Screen

TA : OH HEY PROFESSOR EEHHH NOTHING

TA : Leaves the scene

Professor : Well well. . . What do we have here?

Professor : Opens the laptop, finds the grading.

 *OverTex: *Show grading

Professor : Oh how nice! The grading is here. I guess it is time for me to start coming up with the next assignment then.

Professor : And Chat is already open?...

Professor : looks around, making sure nobody else is present

Professor : Well. . . Don't mind if I..

Professor : No.. you know what? Screw it. I'll just reuse last year's assignment.
